

Transistion Project

HISTORY

Use any resorces you have access to to answer the following questions.

Unit 1 Germany 1871-1991.

1. Otto von Bismarck

- What is he remembered for?
- Pick out five key events from his time as Chancellor of Germany.
- 'Bismarck was a great German Chancellor.' To what extent do you agree with this view?

- Find a map of Europe before 1871, showing all the separate states that became Germany in 1871. Also, find a map of Europe in 1871, showing the newly unified Germany. What changes/differences do you notice? Which state would be most powerful? Why?

Unit 2 Britain 1906-1957.

- What were the main political parties in 1900 in Britain? Find names, leaders and their characteristics, for example, who voted for them etc.
- 'The main reason the Liberal Party won the general election of 1906 was because of the weaknesses of the Conservative party.'
- Carry out some research and write a paragraph to explain your views on this statement.

Type or write up your findings.

You should spend between 2 - 4 hours on these tasks and bring your work to your first lesson in Year 12.

If you have any questions or need any support with your transition work, please contact your subject teacher using the email address below.

We hope you enjoy the tasks and look forward to welcoming you to Glossopdale Sixth Form in September.
